I bought Breaking Point after seeing it on a 'most downloaded' list and am so glad I did because it introduced me to the whole I-Team series by Pamela Clare. Although I enjoyed it as a stand alone novel, having read it a second time after starting the series from the beginning, I'd recommend this approach.

Breaking Point (I-Team, #5) by Pamela Clare

Breaking Point is book 5 in the series and although it's a stand alone, you'd probably enjoy it better and appreciate the supporting roles played by the heroes from her previous books in the series, Julian Darkangelo, Gabe Rossiter, and my favorite --, Marc Hunter if you've read books 1 - 4.

Breaking Point: I-Team 5 (A series of sexy, thrilling ...

I loved Natalie!! She may be my favorite heroine in this series now. She was smart, willing to push herself to help Zach while they were prisoners. That part was so real I was so scared. I liked how she was able to deal with her past demons too. Very realistic and touching. Zach was...
