Open Individualism and Self Interest. Under Daniel Kolak's open individualism there exists one numerically distinct person who is everyone at all times. What I want to explore is the implications of this theory for a self interested individual. For those unfamiliar with Open Individualism, you might instead imagine a demon appears to you, and ...

Daniel Kolak - Phone, Address, Background info | Whitepages

While the class was informative and Kolak was knowledgeable about the ins and outs of philosophy, I found the man to be condescending and full of himself. The atmosphere in the class was of favoritism; meanwhile, Kolak was just rude toward other students for no reason, snapping and carrying on like a mean-spirited George Carlin. Horrible character.
