1. Death. Death is life's ending. To clarify death further, we will need to say a bit about the nature of life, and ask whether life can be suspended or restored, and how it relates to our continued existence. We can also distinguish between the concept of death and criteria by which death can be detected.

Death (Stanford Encyclopedia of Philosophy)

This idea of death as sleep is common in many cultures. But for Hamlet (and Shakespeare of course), in sleep there is the possibility of dreaming ('perchance to dream', line 65); these dreams of death may be nightmares. Hence, it is because humans do not know anything about life after death that they are reluctant to take their own lives and would rather bear earthly sorrows and troubles ...
