Happiness 365 is an ok read if you need
a little reminder about what's important.
This book was fairly disappointing. In Kindle form, it's a pain to read because each short quote is on a separate page.
That might be great if you were actually reading it as a quote each day, but I wasn't.

At its core, most of the things offered in the 365-day happiness challenge can be a part of our routine lives but they are just so homely that we simply stop considering them as something special. By the way, when you are happy, you make your husband happy too. Or we simply could not find the right time to actually DO them.
