Mockingbird Quotes by Walter Tevis - Goodreads

The only thing that bugged me a little was his use of marijuana as a mind numbing drug used to placate the populous. I don't know if Walter Tevis lived through the late 60s and early 70s, but the drug's use hardly numbed the minds of its users, rather along with LSD, it spurred revolution in the streets and an evolution of art and music.

Mockingbird by Walter Tevis - Goodreads

Walter Tevis is perhaps best known for his three most popular novels, each of which have been adapted into highly regarded films: The Hustler, The Color of Money, and The Man Who Fell to Earth. Tevis was apparently inspired to write Mockingbird while he was teaching English literature at Ohio University in the 1970s, and observed literacy in the student body dropping at an alarming rate.
