My brother and I grew up in the 90's watching Fergie's Fledgings, so I found this a very interesting read. This is a great autobiography. I had known Gary's book was out for a few years but wasn't that interested to read it. I have always liked Gary, but he just isn't interesting enough to compel me to buy his book.

Gary Neville first began playing for Manchester United as I started watching them regularly. Hes a Manchester United fan from Manchester (well, Bury) who lived the dream, and he's about my age too. As a kid, Neville used to get to OT at 1am and just sit there watching the pitch whilst his Dad had a pint downstairs.
