Rules of Civility by Amor Towles, Paperback | Barnes & Noble®

I read Rules of Civility after discovering Amor Towles via A Gentleman in Moscow. While this story does not have the same depth as AGIM, it is beautifully written, especially considering it was his debut novel. There are hints of The Great Gatsby in the more shallow characters and in the fact that not everyone is who they appear to be.

Rules of Civility - Reading Guide - Book Club Discussion ...

Amor Towles' debut novel turned me inside out. It was hands down my pick for best novel of 2011. I fell in love with it for so many reasons. The atmosphere that the author creates is lush and beautiful, even though it evokes a grimy and cutthroat city. The characters feel both real and relatable, yet totally unattainable.
