'The House of Tomorrow' Film Review: Wry, Heartfelt Coming ...

Peter Bognanni would probably not appreciate the word "sweet" being used to describe his punk-rock-fueled debut novel, The House of Tomorrow, but parts of the story are decidedly so. This memorable tale tells the story of 16-year-old Sebastian Prendergrast, who lives in a geodesic dome outside North Branch, Iowa, with his Nana, who has homeschooled him in the gospel according to Buckminster Fuller since he was orphaned at the age of 5.

Bognanni: Summary and ...

Most of all though, The House of Tomorrow by Peter Bognanni is about dirty punk rock. Not the cute Fall Out Boy, Cute Without The E kind, the scary Sex Pistols kind is more like it in this book. I used to fancy myself a fan of punk music when I was in high school, after all, I owned a Dropkick Murpheys shirt and thick black glasses.
